12. Ad Hoc Program Managers: These ad hoc program managers will be selected by the Chair under the advisement of the Board. They will be voting members of the Board during the term of their special appointment. Examples of potential ad hoc program managers might be: annual banquet, summer picnic, special work project, fall golf tournament, winter ski trip, tour events, special education initiative, foundation activity, etc.

13. National Association of Forest Service Retirees (NAFSR) Liaison: This liaison position represents the NAFSR as a member of their Board, provides communications between the two organizations and brings to the attention of both organizations policy issues concerning the Forest Service, National Forests and Grasslands, and natural resource activities in the United States.

14. National Museum of Forest Service History Liaison: This liaison position represents the NMFSH as a member of their Board and ensures that both organizations are represented appropriately together. The position ensures that issues of historical significance that are reflective of the Rocky Mountain Region people or programs are shared with the Museum and also makes sure that this Association is kept current on Museum programs and capital campaign progress.

- 15. Forest Service Liaison: This liaison represents the Rocky Mountain Region's interests on the Board and ensures that the Forest Service is kept informed of Association activities. The position also ensures that the Association board is kept informed of pertinent information from the agency.

- E. Election and/or Appointment of Officers: In August of each year the Board will agree on a slate of candidates for the Chair-elect position and present a ballot to the Membership in the Fall Edition of the Rendezvous newsletter. A majority of the votes cast by the membership shall determine the successful candidate for Chair-elect. The current Chair-elect will review all appointed positions in August and make recommendations to the Board for any new appointments or extensions of appointments. New officers and Board members will assume their positions in January of each year. The Board may fill vacancies occurring for any appointed or elective offices for the remainder of the term. An officer or other member of the Board may be removed for cause by a two-thirds vote of the elected officers when that action is determined to be in the best interest of the Association.
- F. Compensation: Members of the Board and others officially acting on behalf of the Association, excluding the NAFSR and NMFSH representative and the liaison positions, may be reimbursed for travel mileage necessary to attend local meetings or the annual meeting. This reimbursement must be approved in advance by the Chair or the Treasurer if the travel is planned by the Chair. No reimbursement will be made for meals or lodging unless an exception is granted by the Board in advance.
- G. Board Meetings: The Board must meet at least quarterly to conduct Association business and may meet more frequently at the request of the Chair. Seven Board members of the standing thirteen will constitute a quorum to conduct Association business. Proxies may be used for members who are unable to attend meetings. A proxy must be in writing and specify the person to act as the proxy and the specific meeting it is valid for. Participation by teleconference will be accommodated for where needed.
- H. Annual Membership Meeting: All members will be invited to attend one annual membership meeting which will be held in late summer or early fall to conduct Association business and to provide members an opportunity to discuss Association activities. This meeting may be held in conjunction with a special event as appropriate and will be held in Denver/Fort Collins area at least every fourth year and may be held in a different geographic location the other three years. The meeting time and place will be scheduled by November 30 of each year and published in the winter edition of the Association newsletter and website. Participation by teleconference or webinar will be accommodated for when needed and feasible.
- I. Local Membership Meetings: Members are encouraged to initiate or continue ongoing gatherings, luncheons, or meetings throughout different geographic areas of the Region. Area representatives are responsible for informing the newsletter editor and website manager of the dates and places for these local meetings within their respective areas so notice can be placed in the Rendezvous and on the website. These local meetings and other activities are to enrich lives of the participants by providing interesting interactive social, learning, and general business experiences that promote the purpose of this Association. The Association Board has no responsibility for planning, organization, or conduct of these local meetings; however, the Chair or his or her designated representative from the Board could be available to attend local meetings as requested.
- J. Scope of Activities: The Association shall not engage in lobbying, support of political candidates, or other political activities. Association programs may allow elected officials as guest speakers but not for campaign purposes. No member is authorized to make statements regarding political matters and represent them as positions of this Association.
- K. Fiscal Year: The Fiscal Year is the Calendar Year.

- L. Finance Management and Accountability: All financial and accounting procedures of the Association shall be carried out using generally accepted fiscal processes and will be conducted on a timely basis. Full documentation is required of all transactions and the Chair shall annually appoint an individual(s), independent of the Board, to conduct an annual financial review. The results of this review will be published in the spring newsletter.
- M. Membership: Any individual who wishes to join the Association, participate in their activities, support their programs, and who meets one of the requirements listed below may become a member:
1. Any retired employee of the Forest Service and his/her spouse or significant other, or surviving spouse or significant other.
 2. Any current Forest Service employee, especially those within five years of retirement.
 3. Any other former employee of the Forest Service or other individual who has shown special interest in the Forest Service and seeks membership and is accepted for membership by two-thirds of the Board.
- N. Dues: Members of the Rocky Mountain Forest Service Association will be assessed dues to support the organization.
1. Establishment: After initial establishment of dues, changes to dues shall only be made by recommendation of the Board and put before a vote of membership. A majority of the votes cast is required for passage.
 2. Use of dues: Dues income will be used by the Board to:
 - a. Fund communication efforts that benefit Association membership, including the newsletter, the website, and other general activities that support connectivity of members within the Association.
 - b. Support to the extent possible the annual Memorial Grove event, including but not limited to the procurement of the engraved brass plaques with honoree names.
 - c. Support of special projects approved by the Board for activities such as natural resource education, scholarship initiatives, volunteer work activities, historic restoration work, and emergency support for Forest Service family members.
 - d. Other normal business expenses which are necessary in annual operation of the Association.
 3. Rates (Regular and Lifetime): Initial dues are established at $20.00 annually. Lifetime membership is available for $250.00. Annual dues are to be paid at the beginning of each calendar year. Dues for more than one year can be paid at one time. Membership in either annual or lifetime categories cover both the member and the spouse. For couples who are both qualified members, the dues for the couple are $20.00 annually or $250.00 for lifetime per couple.
 4. Golden Membership: Members who are 90 or more years of age and in good standing shall be granted a complimentary Golden Lifetime RMFSA Membership.
 5. Dues payment and Inactive Status:
 - a. Annual dues are due on January 1 for the coming year. There will be a gratis period from January 1st to March 31. After April 1, if payment is not received, the member will be placed in 'Inactive Status'.

- b. Inactive Status means that the member no longer has any of the privileges of membership: newsletter, directory, website, voting, special events, etc. The member's basic data remains in Association records. No attempt will be made to update addresses, etc. until reinstated. Inactive status does not affect an individual's qualification for consideration as a Memorial Grove honoree.
- c. New Retirees: A one-year complimentary membership will be granted to any new Rocky Mountain Region or Station retiree along with an official Rocky Mountain Forest Service Association retiree identification.

O. Special projects fund: In addition to using annual dues, the Association will establish and maintain a special projects fund or account to help support special projects and other philanthropic needs. This fund will not be used for annual operating expenses and shall be maintained by special donations, contributions, and excess annual dues income. The Board will annually decide what special projects will be funded and only projects approved by the board will be funded, except for those responding to emergency needs. The Past Chair will be responsible for managing this fund each year.

P. Application of the Bylaws:

- 1. Governance: The Association shall be governed by these bylaws. The bylaws shall not be in conflict with any federal laws or with the laws of Colorado where the Association is established. A review of the Bylaws will be conducted by the Past Chair by September of each year.
- 2. Amendment Procedure: These bylaws may be amended or new bylaws adopted at any regular Board meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose provided that written notice of each proposed amendment or proposed new bylaw shall have been given to each voting member at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such meeting or at the previous regular board meeting. If a bylaw is amended or added, the change will be published in the Rendezvous newsletter.
- 3. Effective Date: When adopted by the Association, bylaws shall become effective immediately and remain in full force and effect until changed.

Q. Cooperative Agreement: The Association will develop and periodically review a Cooperative Agreement with the U. S. Forest Service, Rocky Mountain Region to ensure that both the agency and the Association understand any jointly agreed to commitments and expectations with regard to the Associations work on special projects, communications, and on the Memorial Grove. The Memorial Grove Committee Chair will have responsibility for ensuring that this agreement is in place and kept current and that FSM is updated as changes occur.

R. Distribution of Assets: If it is decided to discontinue this Association, the Board shall, after paying and making provisions for payment of all Association liabilities, distribute the remaining assets to the National Museum of Forest Service History in Missoula, MT and/or the Memorial Grove fund managed by the Pikes Peak Employees Association at the Pikes Peak Ranger District in Colorado Springs, CO, or both.

Amendments:

Amendment #:

Date Adopted:

Bylaws Amendment #1, February, 2014

This Amendment, made in accordance with provision P-2 of the Bylaws, changed the Rocky Mountaineers Annual Meeting from February each year to late summer or early fall, and provides that the upcoming meeting date will be set by November 30 each year, and such proposed date will be published in the Winter edition of the newsletter.

Bylaws Amendment #2, June 2016

This Amendment, made in accordance with provision P-2 of the Bylaws, eliminated the position of Communications Manager and Email Manager from the Board of Directors, added the positions of Newsletter Editor and Website Editor to the Board of Directors and moved previous Email Manager duties to the position of Membership Manager.

The Amendment also added the Northern Front Range Area Representative and modified the areas covered of the Eastern Colorado/Western Kansas Area Representative.

Bylaws Amendment #3, March 14, 2017

This Amendment, made in accordance with provision P-2 of the Bylaws, modified items C3 and D10 to adjust the area covered by the Northern Front Range Area Representative and added a new Area Representative for the Denver geographic area.

Bylaws Amendment #4, Dec. 7, 2017

This Amendment, made in accordance with provision P-2 of the Bylaws, modified item D-10 to strike the clause that assigned responsibility to the Chair-Elect to arrange the Annual Meeting when held in the Denver or Fort Collins area; this responsibility instead will fall to the Northern Front Range or Denver area representative. Items C3 and G were modified to correct the number of Board members to include the Denver Area representative. A misspelling in item D-10 (Elkhart) was also corrected.

Bylaws Amendment #5, June 10, 2020

This Amendment, made in accordance with provision P-2 of the Bylaws, modified items C2 and D10 to include the Scholarship Committee Chair as a permanent voting member of the board in C2 and added the job description in D10. This amendment also brought inline the change in geographical distribution of the Rocky Mountain Forest Service Association C3 and D11.
